MARINE CORPS PARTICIPATION IN INTERSERVICE TRAINING

- Actively involved in ITRO since 1972
- 63% of all MOSs trained at other service locations
 - 43,328 Marines annually
 - Over 1,000 courses listed
 - 68 other-service schools
- Quota, consolidated, or collocated training

Categorical Definitions

- Quota Course – training provided by other established Host Service schools based upon available seating and usually free of charge.
- Consolidated Course – training whereby two or more Services combine resources and establish a curriculum and location suitable to all parties.
- Collocated Course – training whereby Services using their individual resources and instructors establish schools on other Service installations due to benefits such locations provide to their training.
- Quota courses, consolidations, and collocations save resources and infrastructure

- Critical decision points for interservice training
 - Meets individual training standards
 - Saves resources and infrastructure
 - No conflict with core competencies
- MARCORDETS established at locations with large Marine throughput & MARCORREPS at all other locations
 - Provides positive Marine Corps oversight and leadership of Marine students

Note: We do not manage quotas or assignments to courses.
